

I am writing you to request that you support states' ability to protect citizens from unsolicited phone calls (telephone privacy). Since Indiana enacted such legislation, unsolicited sales phone calls to our home have fallen to zero (from several per week). This is a welcome change for our family. Those calls were annoying. family. Those types of phone calls are annoying.